City of Gardendale Code of Conduct

General Statement

Everyone involved in youth sports programs at any level must show respect for all people, property at all times.

The following specific codes of conducts are meant to provide detailed expectations of behavior. Participating in youth sports programs is contingent upon following the code of conduct.

Parents

I will encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, and officials at every game, practice or other sports event.

I will place the emotional and physical well-being of my child ahead of my personal desire to win.

I will insist that my child play in a safe and healthy environment.

I will demand a sports environment for my child that is free from drugs, tobacco and alcohol, and will refrain from their use at all youth sports events.

I will remember that the game is for youth - not adults. I will do my very best to make youth sports fun for my child.

I will ask my child to treat other players, coaches, fans and officials with respect regardless of race, sex, creed or ability.

I will help my child enjoy the youth sports experience by doing whatever I can, such as being a respectful fan, assisting with coaching, or providing transportation.

Accept the decisions of the contest officials and avoid public criticism of game officials/ participants.

I understand that officials have the authority to eject me out of the facility upon my behavior toward him or her.

Coaches

Follow the rules of the contest at all times.

Accept the decisions of the contest officials and avoid public criticism of game officials/participants.

Avoid offensive gestures or language.

Display modesty in victory and graciousness in defeat.

The coach must be aware that he or she has a tremendous influence either good or bad, in the education of the student-athlete and, thus, shall never place the value of winning above the value of instilling the highest desirable ideals of character.

The coach must constantly uphold the honor and dignity of the profession. In all personal contact the coach shall strive to set an example of the highest ethical and moral conduct.

The coach shall be acquainted thoroughly with the contest rules and is responsible for their interpretation to team members. The spirit and letter of rules should be regarded as neutral agreements. The coach shall not try to seek an advantage by circumvention of the spirit or letter of the rules.

Coaches shall actively use their influence to enhance sportsmanship and citizenship by their spectators, working closely with all participants.

Contest officials shall have the respect and support of the coach. The coach shall not indulge in conduct that will incite players or spectators against the officials. Public criticism of officials or players is unethical.

Before and after contests, rival coaches should meet and exchange friendly greetings to set the correct tone for the event.
